

Towards a coordinated vision of Europe-
Africa higher education partnerships:
Supporting institutional capacity building in Africa
24-26 February, Oslo, Norway

“...The University is back on the international scene...”

“...We managed to overcome most of the resistance by involving as many people as possible...”

“...If it weren't for the international programmes and the occasional opportunity to go to conferences, I would probably leave...”

“...We are in this with our hearts and souls but without money...”

“...The younger staff are the smartest and dominate ... and the women dominate even more...”

“... If the contents are not interesting for children then at least the manner of presentation can be...”